ANNOUNCEMENTS

BREED THEATRE.

Harold Lockwood and May Allison in The Masked Rider, Feature for Today and Saturday.

Harold Lockwood and May Allison, two of the foremost artists of the screen, will be seen at the Breed theatre today and Saturday in "The Masked Rider," a thrilling and exciting story told in the mountains of North Carolina, where the feature was actually photographed. Mr. Lockwood and Miss Allison were never better to better advantage than in "The Masked Rider."

HAROLD LOCKWOOD in
"THE MASKED RIDER"

It is a production "after their own heart," as most of the action is staged in the great outdoors, where these stars shine the brightest.
The story of "The Masked Rider" is one of the most gripping ever utilized in a photoplay. It shows how a man as only a rough moonshiner of the North Carolina mountains can feel when he sees a polished interloper attempt to steal from him not only the desire of his heart but his very means of livelihood. Opposed to this is such a wish for vengeance as only a noble man can feel when he discovers that his brother has been cruelly murdered, his only offense of believing true to the highest law he knows.

How these two elements are combined in one of the most powerful combats of primitive passion ever staged is seen in the man-hunt undertaken by the "Parson" and the "Masked Rider," to trap Squid Archer, and his brother-band of moonshiners, guilty of the murder of George Edmunds.
This is heightened by the quest as to whether the "parson" and the masked rider are not one and the same. And beautiful Bill Jamison, the winsome little mountain girl of Bat Cave, has her fight with the brutal leader of the moonshiners, whose mad and frustrated passion leaps all bounds, in which she proves herself a true daughter of the old south. Perilous rides down rocky mountain slopes, man-toman struggles under a starless sky, add to the thrill and suspense of "The Masked Rider," which for sheer power has not yet been matched.
The Breed will also present the Metro Travel Series and a very funny Drew comedy completes the bill for today and Saturday.

She was the daughter of the late Nelher girlhood days and those of early womanhood. She was bound by ties of relationship and friendship to many families in Norwich, where she often

SALTS IF KIDNEYS OR BLADDER BOTHER

Harmless to flush kidneys and neutralize irritating acids—Splendid for system.

Kidney and Bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority.
The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflammation, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

Here have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.
